

The Honors College Presents

The Honors Players in

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

By Oscar Wilde

October 6, 7, 8, 2005

*Slonaker House Living Room
1027 E. 2nd Street, Tucson Arizona*

Special Thanks

The director would like to thank Clare,
Adrienne, everyone in the Honors College,
Damla, and the fantastic cast of this production

Acknowledgements

The Departments of Theatre Arts and Digital Arts of the College of Fine Arts

Please join us for refreshments on the front patio during intermission. Donations are accepted and greatly appreciated.

Time: The 1890s

ACT I. London. A day in May.

INTERMISSION

ACT II. Hertfordshire. The next day.

ACT III. Hertfordshire. Later that day.

Production Artists

Director James Smith (Arizona State Museum, Applications Systems Analyst)
Assistant Director Clare Kosinski (Freshman, Vocal Performance)
Aesthetic Advisor Adrienne Contos (Freshman, Studio Art)
Publicity & Advertisement Laura Ebie (Events Coordinator, The Honors College)

2005 Honors Players

Ravi Savajiyani (Freshman, Molecular & Cellular Biology) as John Worthing

Stephen Adams (Freshman, Political Science) as Algernon Moncrieff

Bill Swenson (Freshman, Undecided) as Rev. Canon Chasuble

Michael Schreiber (Freshman, Computer Engineering) as Merriman, The Butler

Michael Schreiber (Freshman, Computer Engineering) as Lane, The Manservant

Rian Zeleny (Freshman, Creative Writing & Psychology) as Hon. Gwendolen Fairfax

Erin Tread (Junior, Dramaturgy & English Literature) as Lady Bracknell

Emily Denison (Sophomore, Theatre & English Literature) as Cecily Cardew

Lindsay Miller (Freshman, Creative Writing) as Miss Prism, The Governess

Carrie Rice (Freshman, Physiology) as Miss Moulton, the Gardner